

It's My Life

Hi there my friend.

Yes as the title of this leaflet suggests, it's your life. Each and every one of you who is now reading this leaflet has a life. RIGHT.

A life given to you by God, a life which He wants you to enjoy.

Think about this portion of scripture, It's from the book of John Chapter 10v10 Jesus Said. The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. OK

Who is the thief ? It is the devil that Jesus is referring to here.

Now my question to you is. How is your life now?

Have you messed up, have you picked up a few or a lot of bad habits and you can't break loose from them. How is your marriage?

Is your life style destroying your marriage? Let's be honest, people do get hooked on Alcohol, Drugs, Porn, Gambling and a lot more.

Those are the habits that could be destroying your life, Many people have accumulated huge debt bills to pay for their craving. This could be husband or wife, or could be husband and wife together. Is your marriage suffering, is your health and home suffering. Are your kids suffering, your friends, and your parents are they suffering because of you. Everyone who cares about you are suffering because they see you destroying yourself and your life. You know it's wrong, this is really not the life you want, you know deep within your spirit it will bring you nothing but trouble and sickness. But there is nothing you can do about it. You are hooked and you can't break loose. RIGHT

Oh you tried in the past, made promises to yourself and others, no more Drink, this is definitely my last bet, throw those cigarettes in the bin. Pour the booze and the tablets down the sink, rip up all those dirty magazines, no more blue movies for me. Only to find your spirit is weak. Then "BANG" you're back on the same old track.

You may have been down that road so many times friend, you have give up on yourself. You cried enough tears that would fill an ocean, told that many lies you can't even trust yourself now, hurt so many people in the past, your stuck in a trap. Could this be a picture of you ?

Are You Your Own Worst Enemy?

By that I mean my friends, you feel there is no hope, caught in a situation that you seem to think there is no way out. Your desire for whatever cravings you have are controlling you. You have tried your local doctor who prescribed you medicated drugs, and now you can't do without them, the prescribed drugs have you hooked.

You may be smoking 40-60, or more cigarettes a day, you know your chest and lungs are not good, you find it difficult to breath at times, and your morning cough drains you. You have to get out to get that wee drink that you enjoy, you know the one in moderation, the wee drink that does you no harm. Except make you sick, hang-overs, DT's, shakes, and all your money goes on the wee drink.

You borrow to feed your habit because of your nerves and to make you sleep. Then you face the nightmares, and you keep it a secret you have a swollen liver.

Is this you my friend? Is this your lifestyle. Is this the way you are headed.? Is there always constant arguing, and fighting between you and your partner, because one of you can't control their habits.

Who wrecks the house, who wakes up with the cut lip or black eye

Do you suspect that even your own doctor is fed up with you?

If this is you. Your life is messed up my friend. You may be planning to go to your local pub or club tonight, are you going to have a good time, are you really going to enjoy yourself. You might end up fighting and wishing once again you had stayed in.

You might be seriously saying .This is the last, I'm defiantly going to change, but deep within you know you are only fooling yourself

Sometimes It's Difficult

OK Lets say your life is not as bad as the picture I have painted. You have no problem with Alcohol Drugs, Gambling Cigarettes, Porn or any other vice. Lets say yours is depression, sickness, bored, unhappy, no satisfaction. You can't see a future. You have tried everything imaginable. Sometimes it is difficult for some people to see how messed up their life really is. Are you always putting yourself down, everybody else seems to be doing better than you, you sell yourself short. Is That You ?

Everything Imaginable

Are you a person who just likes to stay in the comfort of your wee house, like a bear in a cage looking out the window from time to time to see who is passing? Maybe you have been a successful person, lack of money is not your problem. The world should be your oyster, but for some unknown reason you don't feel successful, happy or contented. Have you really tried everything imaginable ?

Here is another piece of scripture.

Taste and see that the Lord is good, blessed is the man who trusts in Him. Psalm 34v8. Now be honest with yourself, have you tried Him, have you been to church and gave Him a chance to straighten you out, have you tried the Lord? I mean it , have you gave Him a chance. If your answer to this question is No?

Then my friend you have not tried everything. Remember when you were a wee boy or girl running around the streets, you hadn't a care in the world. You didn't know it back then, so you didn't appreciate life for what it should be. My Friend God Gave You Life. God wants you to be happy and enjoy your life. RIGHT

OK Lets say your life is just perfect except for a few mistakes you may have made in the past, your own little secrets, they are a memory in your mind, you regret having done them and now they are holding you in fear. Afraid in case they leak out and shame or destroy your name. Could That Be You? If that is you it means the enemy has you in bondage, you need to be set free from those prison thoughts, you need to be released. You know you can't reveal them to anyone RIGHT. I agree, but you can tell God all about your fears, your habits, your sickness, your depression, your troubles, your marriage.

And believe me friends, no human person is good at keeping a secret, but God will tell no one. You need Him on your side, you need to be set free. Here is another piece of scripture John Ch8v36 If the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed. Friends the Son referred to here is Jesus Christ.

So it is not a doctor, a medicine, a thing, money, or fame. It is the person of Jesus Christ who can make you free from your bondage, your habits, your troubles, your debt. It Is Him

Is He Worth A Try?

If you have come to the conclusion. This is my life, but I blew it. In my early years I did things, picked up bad habits, went down the wrong road in life. What do you do now? Continue on blowing it?

Or are you prepared to come to Jesus and let him restore you.

Here is another scripture to encourage you, you can begin anew.

Joel Ch 2v25 I WILL restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten. The crawling locust, the consuming locust, the chewing locust. Friends those are not the Locust you might imagine, they represent the poisons of life, the wrong decisions, the mistakes, the habits, the life that is completely messed up. Naturally God will not remove all your bad memories, but He will make them endurable, He can set you free from all the habits , debt, and so forth.

He can restore to you a new beginning , a better beginning, a happier finish. Is This What You Want?

If your answer is YES, Then why don't you settle it in your mind and come to church. You must at least give Him a chance to prove to you His word. Taste and see that the Lord is good, blessed is the man or woman who trusts in Him. Is the thought of going to church boring and dull to you? Well compare your life now, in comparison to a Christians. You see I once walked in the same shoes as you, I did all the things in this mentioned. I drank, I smoked, I took drugs, I gambled. I thought I loved the world, but the world didn't love me.

It brought me nothing but trouble, sickness, fights, and stole all my money and a whole lot more. I lived that lifestyle for many years. Now I don't do any of those things, as the Old saying Goes.

I'm as happy as Larry . I don't know where that old saying originated from, and I don't know Larry, but this I do know, when I committed my life to Jesus Christ I am now living a much happier, better life. My new shoes no longer take me to the old places that were robbing me and my family of a sensible life, they walk me to God's house where I meet with a new family of friends. It's my Life And it is much better second half. I was losing the first rounds but now I am winning the battle. Tel 02890450008... Mobile 07975529898
